

What is Recyclable in the Blue Box

What is Recyclable

Corrugated cardboard and clean pizza boxes
(flatten to a 30" x 30" size and remove all plastics)

Cereal/tissue box, cardboard tubes
(flatten to a 30" x 30" size and remove all plastics)

Newspapers, magazines, catalogues, inserts, telephone books and books

Household paper and clean, non-treated paper bags

Clear and coloured glass jars/bottles
(rinsed, no broken glass)

Milk and juice containers/cartons
(no straws)

Plastic bottles, jugs, tubs, pails, trays and hard foam packaging
(Plastic #1, 2, 4, 5 and 6, rinsed)

Plastic bags (stretchy)
(remove paper receipts)

Aluminum and steel cans, aluminum foil, pie plates and trays (rinsed)

Cardboard cans

Empty paint cans and aerosol cans
(empty and dry, lids removed)

Egg cartons
(cardboard or hard styrofoam)

Did you know?

The items listed below don't belong in the Blue Box. They belong in...

Green Cart	Leaf and Yard	Household Hazardous Waste Depot	Garbage
Paper towels/kleenex	Garden plants (no soil)	Batteries	Pet food, chip & cookie bags
Paper coffee cups/takeout containers	Straw	Fluorescent lights	Plastic #3, 7 & no number
Soiled pizza boxes	Garden trimmings	Syringes	Foil juice pouch/ snack bar wrapper
Waxed/tissue paper	Grass clippings	Propane/helium tanks	Foam peanuts
Sugar/flour/potato paper bags	Branches	Unused/expired medication	Plastic food wrap

Do not bag recyclables. Place items in the Blue Box loosely.

The three exceptions are shredded paper, large pieces of rigid styrofoam, and other recyclable bags. These items can be placed in separate clear plastic bags.

If your Blue Box is full, you can place the extra recyclables beside it in a cardboard box.